

TOWN MODERATOR

Town Meeting

Arlington's legislature, the Town Meeting, met for seven sessions during 2006. The Annual Meeting (ATM) began on April 24 and concluded on May 15. Attendance ranged from 79% to 88%. There were no Special Town Meetings during the year. Here are some of the significant actions taken at the ATM (numbers in parentheses are article numbers).

Budgets and Appropriations

The omnibus budget (41) appropriated some $81.5 million for Town activities, while another $8 million was approved for the capital budget (42). An attempt by the 200th Anniversary Committee to receive $6,200 - the exact amount that had been appropriated for the 100th anniversary - was rejected in favor of the Finance Committee's $1,000 recommendation (58). Town Meeting also rejected a suggestion that more money be spent for the Patriots' Day parade (45).

Bylaw Amendments

There were many proposals covering a variety of subjects, but only the following were approved: to require the Assessors to report annual to the Town Meeting (15), to revise employee sick-leave computations (16), and to require the Park and Recreation Commission to hold hearings regarding any proposed dog parks (17).

Home Rule Petitions

Under Massachusetts law, the Town must obtain permission from the legislature to do many things that municipalities in other states can do by right. In 2006, there was an unusually high number of articles requesting such "home rule petitions" but many were rejected. Included among those approved were: to establish a special fund for maintenance of water bodies (24), and to authorize temporary loans (27). The Meeting, after discussion of various proposals, accepted permissive legislation to increase the exemption and reduce the interest rate for elderly real estate tax deferrals (28).

Land Use

A proposal to add 'cluster zoning' was abandoned by the Redevelopment Board and defeated (5). The Zoning Bylaw was, however, amended, after considerable discussion, to allowing parking in the Open Space Districts (6). An attempt by residents of Venner Road to gain total dominion over land in front of their house taken by the Town many years ago for street purposes - and thus left as open space - was defeated (20). By unanimous vote, the Pleasant Street Historic District was enlarged to include the properties on Oak Knoll, a short dead-end street off Pleasant Street (34).

In an attempt to see if the Town meets the 1.5% area requirement for exemption from the imposition of Chapter 40B projects, a committee was established to review area computations (55).

Other Committees

In addition to the committee mentioned above, committees were established to study health care insurance benefits for part-time elected officials (22), to consider options for additional burial space (30), create a state-aid task force (31), and to study the rebuilding of the Highland Fire Station (32).

Resolutions

Resolutions, at the suggestion of the Moderator, are placed at the end of the warrant, but sometimes a resolution is adopted under an article requesting other action, such as a bylaw amendment. Such was the case under 10, where it was voted that the Town support Universal Design in new construction and renovation. Other resolutions were to require the School Facilities Working Group to report on the progress of the Stratton and Thompson schools (65), and favoring designation of part of Massachusetts Ave, the Battle Road, as a scenic byway (66). The Meeting rejected a resolution regarding parental discipline of children (67).

The traditions of Town Meeting include the singing of the National Anthem and an invocation at the start of each session. As usual, on the opening night, the Menotomy Minutemen marched in with the national and Town flags and their fifes and drums provided the music for the opening night. The Arlington High School Madrigal Singers and the Ottoson Select Chorus, both under the direction of Cheryl Hemenway, performed on two evenings. On the other four evenings, Town Meeting Members Jane Howard or Charles Gallagher accompanied on the piano.

Invocations were given by Rabbi Carey Brown of Temple Isaiah, Major Steven Carroll of the Salvation Army, Rev. Ross Goodman, pastor of St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, Rev. Dr. Richard S. Phelps of United Church of Christ, Rev. Dr. Ronald E. Ramsey, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Rev. Carlton E. Smith, assistant minister of First Parish Unitarian-Universalist Church, and Rev. Dave Swaim, senior pastor of High Rock Church. Three other local clergymen who had offered to do invocations, were excused due to the relative shortness of the Meeting.

During the Announcements and Resolutions portion of the agenda near the beginning of the fifth session, the Moderator announced that, having completed six three-year terms, he would not seek re-election when that sixth term ended in April 2007. After a moment of apparently stunned silence, the Town Meeting Members and others present broke into a spontaneous standing ovation, which lasted for several minutes.

LEGISLATIVE

At the conclusion of the seventh and final session, the Moderator thanked all those who had helped him during his time in office, and received another ovation.
