Fashion at the Fox Fundraiser

September 25 & 26

to benefit Arlington's Fox Branch Library

Arlington, MA – On Friday, September 25, and Saturday, September 26, bargain hunters will be lining up outside the Fox Library building waiting for the doors to open at Fashion at the Fox, the pop-up store and community fundraiser that has become a mecca for shoppers from Arlington and beyond.

This sale's inventory of more than 2,000 items includes contemporary women's clothing and accessories in like-new condition, many with original tags, vintage clothing and accessories, and an eclectic selection of gently-used house wares. Prices average $4.00 per item.

Fashion at the Fox is located in the lower level of the Fox Library building, 175 Mass Ave, East Arlington. Hours for this fall's event are Friday, September 25, 5-9pm, and Saturday, September 26, 1-5pm. The store will pop up again in December during Arlington's First Lights event.

Since its first sale in February of 2009, Fashion at the Fox has raised more than $80,000 for local causes, including Arlington's public schools and a fund for street trees. Proceeds from this fall's sale will benefit the Friends of the Fox Library.
