Content of the article is for a resolution before Town Meeting to declare June 24 Prince Hall Day.

In so doing Beth seeks an opportunity around which the town may come together to celebrate this towering figure of the revolutionary era. Her intent is to highlight the Prince Hall Cemetery in East Arlington and to raise consciousness among the Arlington community as to Prince Hall's importance.

She would like to see a living memorial in the form of a speaker series established, as well as curriculum in the schools. After much reading and reflection, she thought the first step a Prince Hall Day.
