Virtual Events:

Challenging Assumptions in Telling Underrepresented History, 02/09/2022, 6:00-7:00 PM The Massachusetts Historical Society presents Cynthia Cowan of Historic Newton; Stacen Goldman of Framingham History Center; Kyera Singleton of Royall House and Slave Quarters; and Barbara Brown of Hidden Brookline as they examine projects at historical organizations that have been able to tell the stories of enslaved people. These projects show that with research and persistence, the stories of all of Massachusetts's residents can be shared.

Black, Queer, and Aging 02/10/2022, 7:00-8:00 PM What is it like to live at the intersections of Blackness, queerness, and aging? Simmons University Professor Gary Bailey, DHL, MSW, ACSW, has decades of professional and lived experience with this topic. Join us as Gary facilitates a panel of Black queer people who are at various points on the aging spectrum. This will be a lively, heartfelt, informative, and humorous presentation, sponsored by LexPride as part of our Celebrating LGBTQ+ Seniors project, which is supported by a grant from the Dana Home Foundation, and cosponsored by Lexington Senior Services, Arlington Council on Aging, and Arlington LGBTQIA+ Rainbow Commission.
