

Do you identify as a member or ally of the LGBTQIA+ community?

Are you committed to ensuring that Arlington continues to cultivate a strong LGBTQIA+ community?

Do you want to work with fun, hardworking, fellow Arlington residents who are committed to increased access, equity, and inclusion?

THE ARLINGTON LGBTQIA+ RAINBOW COMMISSION IS SEEKING PROSPECTIVE NEW COMMISSIONERS

The Commission seeks committed residents to apply to join the Commission! We're a highly engaged group of residents, appointed by the Town, who are dedicated to creating greater access, equity and inclusion in Arlington for LGBTQIA+ individuals and families through active community building, affirming policies and programs, resources, advocacy, and initiatives.

Please consider joining us to make a positive impact in our community!

We encourage applicants of all backgrounds and identities to ensure that the group truly represents the wonderful diversity within Arlington's LGBTQIA+ community. Specifically, we're seeking finance, communications and writing pros, as well as thoughtful, collaborative individuals to round out the collective experience and skill-set of current Commissioners.
